Dear Karen, 1/13/76

Thanks for the new batch of clips and apologies for forgetting to thank you for the nice cheese. Too much pressure.

I am taking care. That is part of the problem. Shortened day. more work.

Latest report by phone from doctor's nurse today is that I'm coming along very well.

When I asked you about Kimsey McDonald had not yet used his name in the book. But I knew. I also knew of Kimsey earlier, before he died, but never met him. He had a local lady friend.

Supposedly he was no more than a questioned documents expert, so he on this count also doesn't fit McDonald's account.

No response to my request of Dep. Justice to prosecute him, publishers, backers for fraud.

Thanks and best,
